

The Dangers of Canine Obesity

Obesity in Dogs – A Serious Concern

Over 50% of dogs are obese in the US. Causes: Poor diet, high-calorie treats, lack of exercise. Abdominal fat leads to health problems.

TOP 10 Risks of Pet Obesity

Lack of Stamina

- Reduced exercise ability.
- Difficult weight loss.

Respiratory Problems

- Shortness of breath.
- Sleep apnea.
- Wheezing.

Temperature Intolerance

- Weather-related issues.
- Use weather gear.

High Blood Pressure

- Hypertension.
- Risk of heart failure.

Diabetes

- Obesity increases risk.
- Manageable but challenging.

Liver Disease

- Overworked liver.
- Toxins buildup.

Osteoarthritis

- Painful swollen joints.
- Weight loss helps.

Surgical Risk

- Anesthesia complications.

Weakened Immune Function

- Increased illness risk.
- Costly treatments.

Cancer Risk

- Higher cancer chance.
- Especially in certain breeds.