

The White House Woofs

1 President George Washington

- Developed a new breed of Foxhound which he called "Virginia Hounds"
- Washington has Virginia Hounds, Greyhounds, Dalmatians, Spaniels, Terriers, Newfoundland, Briards and a Poodle.
- Some names were Truelove, Venus, Lady, Music, Chloe, Sweet Lips, Tippler, Topsy, Drunkard, Searcher, and Vulcan.
- Had more than 50 dogs in his lifetime.

2 President Franklin D Roosevelt

- Had a total of seven Dogs in his company.
- Most famous one was Fala, a Scottish Terrier puppy.
- Fala traveled with the President on his overseas visits.
- MGM made two films about Fala.

3 President George W. Bush

- Had a total of three dogs, two Scottish Terriers, and an English springer spaniel named Miss Beazley, Barney and Spot respectively.
- Had an official website that featured "Barneycam" videos.
- Videos are available for viewing on the Presidential Library and Museum website.

4 President Lyndon B. Johnson

- Had a mixed breed dog named Luki rescued in Texas on Thanksgiving Day.
- Yuki sings well and used to swim, sleep, and dance together with the President.

5 President John F. Kennedy

- Had three dogs named Shannon, Clipper, Charlie, and Wolf.
- He built a special play area near the West Wing for his Dogs.
- First President to request that his dogs meet him when he arrived at the White House in the Presidential helicopter.

6 President Barack Obama

- Had two Portuguese Water dogs namely Bo and Sunny.
- Bo was a gift from Senator Edward Kennedy and his wife.
- Sunny was adopted in 2013.
- The pups even had active schedules filled with photoshoots and grounds crew